LIVING IN YOGYAKARTA

Besides being active in academic activities, GS YSU students are also active in cultural activities. Being situated in Yogyakarta is one of the advantages of studying at GS YSU. Some of the activities are International Day and Night, Batik and Karawitan workshops, traditional dancing, pencak silat, and cultural camps. These activities are organized mainly by the Office of International Affairs and Partnership YSU in collaboration with GS YSU.

GS YSU campus is near cultural sites and attractions, such as Prambanan Temple, Kalasan Temple, Boko Temple, Ramayana Ballet show, Yogyakarta Palace, earthenware village Kasongan, Batik galleries, painting galleries, culture houses, beautiful beaches, and shopping centers. Studying in Yogyakarta, students experience both wonderful academic & cultural environment.
